Summary

A passionate data science enthusiast from CHARUSAT, I'm deeply immersed in the realms of machine learning (ML) and deep learning (DL). Armed with a solid academic background, I'm actively contributing to diverse ML/DL projects and research papers, fueling my ambition to transform raw data into actionable insights.

My focus includes ML, DL, predictive analytics, and data mining. I thrive on challenges, combining hands-on experience with theoretical exploration. Open to collaborations, I believe in shaping the future of data science through shared insights and innovative projects.

Let's connect and explore the ever-evolving landscape of data science! Beyond data, you'll find me engaged in sketching, watching anime, and reading books. Join me on this data-driven journey, where curiosity meets innovation! #DataScience #MachineLearning #DeepLearning #InnovationInData
